CHEF APPAREL

Athena Chef Apparel has been designed and created by Chef Denise Portillo. Flexibility and style are important for the ever-growing arena of the culinary arts. This line is sleek, durable, and fashionable.

To date, inventory consists of chef coats, rompers, work shirts, aprons, utility belts and undergarments for women. The chosen material is a blend of spandex and cotton allowing comfortable movement as well as easy care for this quality material. Garments and accessories are created in black or white to underscore the yin and yang of equality.
